

SRW&Co. Announces ASEAN Global Leadership Program (AGLP) Scholar 2024/2025

Jakarta, 31st December 2024. Regional Management Consulting firm SRW&Co. today announces the 2024/2025 ASEAN Global Leadership Program (AGLP) Scholar. The recipient of the AGLP Scholarship is Henry Dinh (Dinh Huu Thanh) from Vietnam. Henry Dinh is the Chairman and CEO of Bee Logistics Corporation. The company was recently honored with the ASEAN Business Award 2024 for Priority Integration Sector – Transport & Logistics and is ranked 3rd in the Top 10 Most Reputable Logistics Providers in Vietnam. The 20-year-old company is a leading logistics provider in Vietnam with a presence in 16 countries through its 41 Offices worldwide. The company specialises in air and sea freight, warehousing, and cross-border trucking solutions.

The AGLP scholarship was launched in 2016 by SRW&Co. as a CSR initiative in collaboration with the ASEAN Business Advisory Council. The coveted scholarship is open to the ASEAN Business Award winners and finalists. To date a total of 7 AGLP Scholars from across the ASEAN region, had attended the AGLP in the top ranked business schools in UK, China and USA. Launched in 2009, the ASEAN Global Leadership Program (AGLP) is an exclusive leadership development program designed to equip senior executives from both the private and public sectors with strategic management skills, global business insights, and to foster an extensive network for business and government leaders across the ASEAN region.

SRW&Co. Chairman & Partner, Daniel Wong congratulated Henry Dinh on his success in winning the AGLP Scholarship. He said the applicants for the scholarship had undergone a very selective process of screening and interview assessment in meeting the stringent selection criteria. “We assess the candidates in terms of their leadership qualities and their vision to build and grow a sustainable business. We also consider their commitment to promote networking and leadership development among the business community in the ASEAN region. Under Henry Dinh’s leadership, Bee Logistics Corporation has achieved remarkable milestones, expanded its international footing, and solidified its position as a leading logistics service provider in Vietnam and beyond. “, said Wong.

ASEAN Business Award 2024 Chair Thanongsinh Kanlagna also congratulated Henry Dinh on his winning of the coveted AGLP Scholarship. “Having the AGLP Scholarship 2024/2025 as part of the ASEAN Business Awards 2024 with Laos Chairmanship was just perfect. The scholarship provides our ABA winners and finalists with such a beneficial program to help them further improve their entrepreneurial leadership and managerial skills in developing their businesses ...”, said Thanongsinh. He also commended SRW&Co. for providing the AGLP Scholarship to the ABA winners and finalists in helping them to become more competent in achieving their business vision and objectives.

Sharing his thoughts on receiving the coveted AGLP scholarship, Henry Dinh said: “The AGLP is an invaluable opportunity to further refine my leadership skills, gain valuable business and leadership insights from the world class faculty and industry experts and to help me build valuable networks and connections with peers across the ASEAN region. I am confident that the knowledge and experiences gained from this program will significantly contribute to both my personal development and our company’s growth journey and further enhance our contribution to the logistics industry in Vietnam and globally. I am grateful to SRW&Co. and ABA Laos in giving me this opportunity. “

Henry Dinh will be attending the spring edition of the ASEAN Global Leadership Program to be conducted by ESCP Business School in Paris from May 19-23, 2025. He will join a group of 30 senior executives from the ASEAN region in the week-long program with a very interesting agenda comprising classroom lectures, group discussion, a leadership forum with attendance by international and French business leaders, and company visits to iconic French companies.
